GALLERY NEWS

The Gallery Choir received great praise for their lovely singing at a concert held last Friday in the Presbyterian Church, Adelaide Rd. The event was organised to raise funds for an early music conference due to take place in Dublin next year.

John Keats, in Ode to Autumn, evoked a wonderful imaginative description of the waning months of the year. In the same way, but through music Jean Sibelius "Be Still my Soul" reflects not only the composers' own brush with death but also his love of nature. Sibelius, 1865 – 1957 – was born in Finland. He became one of the important influences on the formation of Finland's national identity. Just as in Ireland "O Danny Boy" has almost become a national anthem, so too has "Be Still my Soul". The choir will sing this lovely hymn at which he savoured the changes in the seasons...the cries of the curlew...the spring blossoms...autumn colours...can be felt in his flowing melodic lines.

MONDAY CLUB

"Localise" gave us a morning of fun and laughter for Halloween. When we called into the Parish Centre after Mass we were greeted with such cheer and good will it was lovely to behold. We sat back and were treated to barmbrack and a card each and sweets. Lovely! Then we had a proper Bingo session with callers and scrutineers. The prizes were worth waiting for as in vain some of us missed out by one or two numbers. Taking pity on us oldies they had a few "calls" which gave us more prizes. A great morning - many thanks to all involved who gave up their "lie in" to entertain us.

Next week we welcome Susan Knight from Shaw Trust who will give a talk on John McGahern which promises to be a golden opportunity for those of who so enjoyed this late lamented author's work.

For our Year of Faith so thoughtfully put forward by Peter Siney, please pray and remember the souls in Purgatory
