

MONDAY CLUB - 19 June 2017

We had a lovely morning for a chat and cuppa. The lovely warm sunny weather brought out the lovely dresses and hats and everyone looked so beautiful in the summer outfits. Welcome to Sue and May who came in to join us. We intended having a quiz today but we had a raffle instead. Minnie Murphy brought some cookery books (Food for the Soul). Minnie's brother Paul who lives in Naas is involved with a fundraising group to help a charitable organization who provide help and support to a leper colony in India. The raffle amounted to €70. The books were won by Teresa Kinnane, Mary McKeown and Una Murphy. Congratulations to you the winners and to all who supported. Minnie expresses her thanks to all for the support.

We had our little exhibition of the items that were entered in the art competition as part of the Bealtaine Festival.

Congratulations to all who entered. We each won prizes for the items entered. Mary Mooney had a beautiful painting and a hand knitted reversible doll (two dolls in one). Brid Connolly a beautiful crocheted table centerpiece. Kathleen Finan a fruit cake, and myself a quilled picture of swans on water and a house and garden from a chocolate box.

Megan O'Grady from Trinity Research Centre, St James's Hospital came to carry out the last of the interviews as part of the research they are doing on the effects of head injuries sustained in early life. They are trying to see if these injuries have an effect in later life. If anybody would like to take part in the research I can put you in contact with Megan.

Please keep in prayer, Margaret and Teresa for a speedy recovery. Until next week take care. Kathleen R

The Irish Cancer Society's Daffodil Centres are currently seeking volunteers for their centres in the Hermitage Hospital and in Beaumont

Hospital. The role requires people to volunteer their time for about 4 hours a month. The post consists of volunteers welcoming enquirers to the Daffodil Centre, talking to enquirers (members of the public, patients and their families), identifying their needs and signposting them to appropriate sources of information and support.

You are God's special child. He knows all about you. He knows what you like to eat. He knows your favorite color. He knows how many teeth you have. He even knows how many hairs are on your head. No one in this world loves you as much as God loves you. Be sure to tell your friends how much God loves them, too.

God, I thank you for loving me so much.
