WHY YOU MIGHT INVEST IN A GYMNASIUM OR KEEP FIT CENTRE

A couple of weeks ago I wrote about New Years resolutions and how difficult it is to maintain them. The new year sees an increase in people taking out memberships of gymnasium and keep fit centres with regular users complaining that in January the venues are full of newcomers who constantly get in the way. By the end of January and certainly by mid February many of the newcomers decrease the frequency of their visits or give up all-together leaving the owners with a handsome profit, particularly if the new customers paid for their annual membership upfront. A similar situation occurs when September brings about a certain enthusiasm for night classes but by November only the most committed stay the course.

A new year resolution we as a Parish took on was to welcome the families of children for Baptism. During the 12.00 Village Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month we ask the parents to name their baby and we begin the dialogue with the parents, asking them what they want of the Church for their child to which they reply 'baptism' and they promise to bring up their child as a Christian. The parents and godparents along with some members of the parish make the sign of the cross on the foreheads of the babies as we welcome them to our parish community. The response so far has been very positive. The invitation to parents to have their child baptised during the Mass they attend is still open, please mention this to Anne in the office at the time of booking the baptism. As I have written previously there was something not quite right that as we left after the twelve Mass we were meeting the baptism families who had no connection with us. Thanks to Christina, one of our Parish Pastoral Workers, and our baptism team for all the preparation for this initiative.

The World Meeting of Families 2018 is only seven months away. In the Sanctuary area you will be able to see and read information about volunteering to assist with the program or maybe you would be interested in hosting a family from overseas for the duration of the event. The Combined Catholic Parishes of Clondalkin will be hosting a number of events in the lead up to the meeting in August. WSRLD As we begin our preparation for WMF2018, pray that we don't fall MEETING of into the trap that trips up the gymnasium users and night class FAMILIES attendees who fall by the wayside but to persevere to the end and 21-26 AUGUST 2018 renew and increase the faith of all our families. Fr. Damían

We still keep the tradition alive. All are encouraged to have a blessed candle in the home to be used when the Blessed Sacrament is brought to the home of the sick and housebound and indeed are a source of encouragement for anyone in need.

Candles are on sale in the Parish Shop. They are then blessed at all Masses.

"All Shook up" name and nature—the musical staged by Colaiste Bride, Moyle Park and Colaiste Cillian last week brought back memories of music and dance we loved in times many moons ago. The vitality, self confidence and talent of these young people were a joy to witness and be part of. Congratulations and many thanks for a wonderful night's escape from reality! B.E. - BEGINNING EXPERIENCE

B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through Death, Separation or Divorce. Few people are able to cope alone with the pain of loss. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? Seeking help is a sign of strength and self-knowledge - not weakness. This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn.

A team, who are themselves widowed, separated or divorced share their experiences with you.

Next Coping Programme will commence on Wednesday 7th February 2018 for 7 Wednesday evenings, at 7.15pm in White Friars Community Centre, Aungier St. , Dublin 2 (No need to book) For further information phone 086 0877379 or email bedublin@gmail.com www.beginningexperience.ie

Clondalkin History Society Lecture Three Churches One Site Clondalkin Illustrated talk by Theresa O'Leary. Monday 29th Jan 2018.

Venue: Aras Chronain, Watery Lane, Starting at 8pm.

Admission is €5 (non-members) All are welcome - Josephine Byrne

Today we had a good crowd in the club. Welcome to Teresa from Offaly who is on a visit to her daughter. Teresa has come a few times before. We also had Christina Malone (pastoral worker in our parish) who told about customs in her native Germany at Christmas time. The one she spoke about at Mass recently is about children (star singers) dressing up in costumes, go around visiting houses in the parish singing and bringing a gift. This is representative of the three kings, Casper, Melchior and Balthasar visiting Jesus in the crib at Bethlehem.

A few weeks ago Christina had little plaques which had $(20^{*}C + M + B + 18)$ which represents 2018 (this year) and the first letters of the names of the three kings. These plaques are placed on a wall or at the doorway to the house.

Christina brought a bundle of the plaques to our parish to be distributed at Masses here, but after her talk about them at the 10.30 Mass they were all taken and there was none left for the other masses. It would be wonderful if we could in some small way introduce something similar to this in our own parish.

Jesus was born for all of us and the three kings came from afar to pay homage and bear gifts to Jesus. It does not matter where we are from in the world Jesus is friend to us all only if we can let him into our hearts, soul and mind. Thank you Christina for taking the time to come even though you were pressed for time on this occasion.

Some of us got to the show "All Shook Up" which was staged in Colaiste Brid last week. This show was put on by the students of Colaiste Brid, Moyle Park College and Colaiste Killian. Work started for this production last September. Congratulations to all the students who performed on stage, choir, musicians, front of house, and everybody who was involved in any way. The acting was superb and whole show was equally as good in every way as any professional show in the Gaiety or Bord Gais.

Who would want to go there after that? Great Show!!!! I got rushes today for the making of St Brigid's Crosses next week. I am hoping Frank Hegarty will be available to come to teach us in case some of us have forgotten.

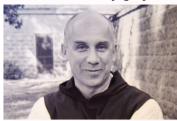

I thank Michael Joyce of Rathcoole for going out in this cold weather to cut them for me. Thank You Michael. I appreciate it very much as now I don't have to go the Roscommon for them this year.

Until next week take care

Praying with the mystics!

Thomas Merton 1915-1968 was one of the most influential Catholic authors of the 20th century. A Trappist monk of the Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani, in Kentucky, Merton was an acclaimed spiritual writer, poet, author and social activist. Here he describes a moment of awaking which he experienced. 'In Louisville, at the corner of Fourth and Walnut, in the centre of the shopping district, I was suddenly overwhelmed with the realization that I loved all these people, that they were mine and I theirs, that we could not be alien to one another even though we were total strangers.

It was like waking from a dream of separateness, of spurious self-isolation in a special world, the world of renunciation and supposed holiness. The whole illusion of a separate holy existence is a dream. Not that I question the reality of my vocation, or of my monastic life: but the conception of "separation from the world" that we have in the monastery too easily presents itself as a complete illusion We are in the same world as everybody else, the world of the bomb, the world of race hatred, the world of technology, the world of mass media, big business, revolution, and all the rest

This sense of liberation from an illusory difference was such a relief and such a joy to me that I almost laughed out loud.

To think that for sixteen or seventeen years I have been taking seriously this pure illusion that is implicit in so much of our monastic thinking I have the immense joy of being man, a member of a race in which God Himself became incarnate. As if the sorrows and stupidities of the human condition could overwhelm me, now I realize what we all are. And if only everybody could realize this! But it cannot be explained. There is no way of telling people that they are all walking around shining like the sun. Annetta Maguire Blessings,

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE - 3rd FEBRUARY

St. Blaise was the Bishop of Sebaste in Armenia who suffered martyrdom under Licinius about AD 316 even though Christianity was legalized under Constantine in 313. On his way to prison St. Blaise encountered a woman whose pig was being seized by a wolf; He commanded the wolf to release the pig, and it was freed unhurt. The woman whose pig had been saved brought St. Blaise candles so that his cell would have light and he could read the sacred Scriptures. By the 6th century, St. Blaise's intercession was invoked for diseases of the throat in the East and as early as the 8th century in Europe. On Saturday, throats will be blessed at the 10am Mass timely and appropriate due to the many sneezes and coughs that are around this time of year!

YOUTH AND THE SELFIE GENERATION - A FEW THOUGHTS

A main theme of our Catholic Social Teaching is the inherent value, worth and dignity of each of God's human beings. Human dignity is something that can't be taken away. We believe that each and every person has value, are worthy of great respect and must be free from slavery, manipulation and exploitation.

"How can it be that it is not a news item when an elderly homeless person dies of exposure, but it is news when the stock market loses two points? This is a case of exclusion." - Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium

Human dignity can be undermined daily in subtle ways. It's often said that Young people are growing up in selfie culture. To fit in, they are expected to post a selfie before, during and after every activity. They then watch closely for the resulting likes, thumbs-up and other ratings to tally. It's a great way to share experiences and memories. The downside? It can turn into a self-image measurement. It affects how they view themselves. Recent studies show that...

- 35 percent are worried about people tagging them in unattractive photos.
- 27 percent feel stressed about how they look in posted photos.
- 22 percent felt bad about themselves if their photos were ignored.

Here are a few examples of the selfie culture our youth are growing up in:

Instagram - The number of followers, likes and emojis young people can collect gets competitive, with users often begging for them. Instagram "beauty pageants" and other photo-comparison activities crop up, with losers earning a big red X on their pics.

#tbh - When Instagram users type "#tbh," they're indicating either that they want others to honestly appraise their selfies or they're expressing their true feelings about someone else's looks. Examples: "#tbh am I pretty?" or "#tbh I think you're really pretty." Although #tbh is usually positive, it can get negative in specific and hurtful ways, and even when it stays positive, it reinforces the idea that appearance is what matters most.

Snapchat - Numerical scores display the total number of sent and received chats. You can view your friends' scores to keep tabs on who's racking up the most views.

YouTube -"Am I pretty or ugly?" - Our Youth - mostly girls - post videos of themselves asking if other users think they're pretty or ugly. These videos are typically public, allowing anyone – from peers at school to random strangers - to post a comment.

Social media tools can be very influential in a young person's view of themselves. While it can bolster self-esteem, it can also hurt it. It is critical that we help the selfie generation navigate through this struggle.

Help our young people discover the foundation of their self-image. We must teach our young people that their self-image is based not on how others see them on social media, but on how God sees them. When we help them see that who they are in Christ is more important than what they look like, it will give them sustaining confidence, even when they get a thumbs down on social media.

Help them see the true picture. They often compare themselves to the media images of celebrities and models. But they may not understand that these images are often retouched and enhanced. Yes, the people may be attractive, but it is not real life and not a standard by which they should compare themselves.

Our Young people face the challenges of growing up in a selfie generation, give them a true picture of who they are in Christ. We are each created in the image and likeness of God. Regardless of any factors or reasons we can think of, individuals have an inherent and immeasurable worth and dignity; each human life is considered sacred.

God loved each of us into existence!

Young people's health in mind

Lord, I know you are with me and love me. Give me peace of mind as I prepare for this time of study. Help me to focus on my books and notes, keep me from all distractions so that I will make the best use of this time that is available to me. Give me insight that I might understand what I am studying , and help me to remember it when the time comes. Above all, I thank you for the ability to be able to study and for the many gifts and talents you have given me. Help me always to use them in such a way that they honour you and do justice to myself. Amen

Young People Making A Real Difference In Their Community - We meet Every Monday from 7-8 pm at the Parish centre in Ocalise the Clondalkin Church to plan community events. - Come along!!! We regularly meet up on Saturday mornings for a clean-up or event-planning session. We are always looking for volunteers from 12+ and

"We sing a song to Brigid. Brigid brings the spring Awakens all the fields and the flowers and calls the birds to sing. All were welcome at her door. No one was turned away. She loved the poor, the sick and the sore. She helped them on their way. She laid her cloak on the ground and watched it grow and grow. In wells and streams and fields of green, St. Brigid's blessing flow" A song we learnt in honour of St. Brigid. I like it!

Like feast days throughout the world food is involved in the celebration of St. Brigid's life. Here's a simple recipe for St. Brigid's Oatcakes that you may want to make with your family - they're simple and lovely!!

St. Brigid's Oatcakes (serves 4)

2 cups uncooked, old-fashioned rolled oats (not instant) 1¼ cups buttermilk 2 ½ cups sifted bread flour 1 teaspoon baking soda ½ teaspoon baking powder 1 teaspoon salt Vegetable oil spray

Brigid

A day ahead, combine the oats and buttermilk in a small bowl. Blend thoroughly, cover and refrigerate overnight. The next day, preheat the oven to 350 degrees F/180 degrees C. Remove the oat mixture from the refrigerator. Combine the bread flour, baking soda, baking powder, and salt in a large bowl. Slowly add the oat mixture and stir with a wooden spoon 20 to 30 times, or until you have a smooth dough. Grease a baking sheet with the oil spray. Turn the dough onto the baking sheet, and use your hands to form a round, cake-shaped loaf about 1-inch thick. Use a sharp knife or pizza cutter to cut the dough into 4 quarters. Move the quarters apart slightly, but keep them in the original round shape. Bake until the cakes are light golden brown and firm to the touch, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool slightly on a rack, and serve with butter and jam or preserves. Makes 1 loaf (in quarters).

Today, 28 January marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week 2018.

During this week, we celebrate the unique contribution that Catholic schools, both primary and post-primary, make to the mission of the Church in our local faith communities and throughout the wider Church. This year's theme is Catholic Schools:

Families of Faith.

We are reminded that we belong to a family of faith. A family centred on the person of Jesus Christ, called to gather together to pray and care for one another. If you remember during this week say a little prayer for all our families, pupils and teachers!!

Loving God, we thank you for the wonderful gift of family, our family at home, in school, in the parish and the wider world. Help us to love and care for each member of all our families and to live in joy and faith in the beautiful world you have created for us. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your son, and our lord. Amen.
