UNBELIEF

There is no unbelief.

Whoever plants a seed beneath the sod
And waits to see it push away the clod
He trusts in God.

Whoever says, when clouds are in the sky
"Be patient, heart; light breaketh by-and-by,"

Trusts the Most High

Whoever sees, 'neath winter's fields of snow,
The silent harvest of the future grow,
God's power must know.

Whoever lies down on his couch to sleep
Content to lock each sense in slumber deep Knows God will keep.

Whoever says, "Tomorrow," "The Unknown"
"The Future," trusts the Power alone
He dares disown.

The heart that looks on when the eyelids
close,
And dares to live when life has only woes,
God's comfort knows

There is no unbelief;

And day by day, and night unconsciously,
The heart lives by that faith the lips deny.
God knoweth why!

The poem by Elizabeth York Case is dedicated to Fr. Seamus who is preparing the ground in his garden to sow the shamrock seed to have a plentiful supply of our national plant in time for St.
Patrick's day next year – my definition
again of optimism.

The shamrock was truly appreciated by all and we look forward to a repeat performance.
"Many thanks" Fr. Seamus!
