This procession will recall Eucharistic Congress 2012 and in particular the theme for that week 'Communion with Christ and with one another'. It would be wonderful to have every parish represented at this Anniversary Celebration (there is ample parking for coaches, cars etc.)

All are encouraged to take part in this Diocesan event as we celebrate the richness of Congress 2012 and our commitment to live that theme every day.

All who received their 1st Holy Communion this year are invited to join in this special celebration.

MONDAY CLUB

Our grateful thanks to Kathleen Ryder for her donation of a complete "Bingo Game"! It was a lovely morning for us as Minnie held a free raffle before our games commenced. The worthy winner was Eilish. Back to our Bingo session with our rotating numbers ball which was very professional. We had four winners – Peggy, Lena, Phyllis and Vera and as we all enjoyed ourselves this game will be a popular one in the future!!

Next week we will have our own Julie – officially known as Siobhan Ní Dhonnachadha, who will recite some poems from her book "The Rising of one's self". This book will be of huge benefit to Our lady's Hospice as Julie is giving 50% from the sales of her book to them. Please come along and support this worthy cause.
