“CENACOLO” COMMUNITY

Community Cenacolo is a Catholic community that helps people overcome addictions. We are based on a farm in Knock. The Community was started by an Italian nun, Mother Elvira, in 1983 and currently has 60 houses worldwide, accommodating over 2,000 people. The Community life is one of friendship, prayer and work. The young men and women live off divine providence relying on the farm produce. We are recognised by the Church as a private association of the faithful. We are a non-profit organisation and our program is completely free. If you know of anybody who is suffering from addiction and needs help please don't hesitate to contact us or visit our website.

Information meetings for addicts and family every Wednesday evening 7:30pm at St. Peter's Parish Centre Phibsboro

MONDAY CLUB

As you all know the Irish National War Memorial Gardens at Islandbridge are dedicated to the memory of the Irish soldiers who died between 1914 – 18 in the 1st World War – and so it was last Monday morning that a small group of us paid a visit to this wonderful place. We were so lucky – weather wise- beautiful blue sky and lovely sunshine that we felt truly blessed to be there in the hallowed spot which has such an air of peace and tranquillity. The roses were absolutely beautiful and the lawns were manicured to an inch. The trees were also at their very best as some were turning to gold already. We were delighted to get into two the bookrooms and to see the historic Ginchy Cross and also the signatures of Mary and Martin McAlesse and Queen Elizabeth and Philip of England.

THOUGHT FOR THE YEAR OF FAITH

One is nearer God's Heart in the Garden than anywhere else on earth!
