Recently Married ... Congratulations!

Lyndsey Cross and Paul Friery

We had a lovely "Thank You" card from Martin who retired last week. He thanked everyone for all their good wishes, kind words and gestures of goodwill which he very much appreciates.

Enjoy your retirement, Martin!

thank you!

TIDY TOWNS AFTERNOON TEA

Your much valued support for our fundraiser has encouraged Clondalkin Tidy Towns to pursue its ambitions to make this a better and more inclusive place to live.

Orchard Lane Community Centre Project Meeting

The plans for the premises on Orchard Lane left for the use of the elderly of our community is now up for discussion on how it should be used. This is a possible valuable asset for the clubs and committees in our area. We need to hear your voice so please come along and have your say about what activities, what clubs, what amenities it should have.

The next and final meeting will be held on Wednesday 28th August at 7.30pm in the Round Towers GAA Club. Please spread the invite to all interested parties. Hope to see you there!

We enjoy getting submissions for inclusion in the Newsletter, especially poems of inspiration, stories that gladden the heart and make us think!

Please, non controversial or political. Use the address in the front of this newsletter.

Thanks

IMPORTANT

NOTICE

.....PLEASE READ

We have recently learned that unfortunately Grace Communications have made the decision to stop the service to parishes of printing and delivering their newsletters. Over the last 2 and a half years with this service through LPI Ireland & then Grace we have been able to bring a more colourful, larger & vibrant parish newsletter that has seen the weekly distribution numbers rise from 300 to 750 plus a large online uptake with no cost to the parish (The local advertising on the back page paid for the costs & we thank all the local sponsors for making this possible). Our last publication with Grace is due to be 8th Sept. We are extremely disappointed with this decision and are trying to do our best to keep the newsletter going in its current format after this date but are not sure how. We are looking for your help, suggestions and possible sponsorship. Please contact the parish office if you can help in any way. Thanks

Monday Club 19th August 2019

We had a quite a large crowd in the club this morning for a chat and coffee and cake. We were supposed to go to Dun Laoghaire for a walk on the pier and a possible boat trip around the bay, but with the uncertain weather and the morning being a bit chilly we stayed in the club. Maybe on another Monday morning if the day is good we will go. Peggy O'Neill brought in the Autumn/Winter programme of concerts etc for the Civic Theatre in Tallaght. There are quite a few interesting shows coming up. A few were interested in different shows, so it was decided for people to book their own show. There is a line-up of Red Hurley, Phil Coulter, Paddy Cole, Dean Martin Hits, story of Vera Lynn, and the legendary Luke Kelly tribute by Chris Kavanagh to name a few.

We missed Martin this morning, so we wish him a very Happy Retirement. Please drop in whenever you can Martin. You will always be welcome and thank you for all your help and support over the past four years.

Please remember that the Parish Pilgrimage to Knock will be going on Saturday 7th September.

All in fare is €42 which includes bus, tea/coffee on way and a meal on the return journey home.

Bus leaving 8am sharp.

Spiritual Director is Fr Padraig O'Sullivan.

Contact: Teresa on 459 3993 or Kathleen on 086 404 1255

Thanks a million Stephen for having the tables set up for us this morning and for the clear up. Thanks too to Collette and Joan.

We will be back again weekly from Monday 2nd September.

Until then, take care.

The Migrane Association of Ireland will present a workshop on Migrane in the Workplace on Thursday 12th September in the Grand Canal Hotel, Dublin 4, from 7pm to 9pm.

The workshop will benefit people with migrane, employees, managers and employers. It will enable people better to manage and understand their condition and enable employers to provide better supports and accommodations in the workplace. It offers a unique opportunity to access specialist knowledge in the area of migrane and headache.
