THE LIFE-GIVING SPIRIT

Throughout Scripture the Holy Spirit is seen as a creative and life-giving force. In the Old Testament the Spirit is "the divine breath" which guarantees the life of every human being and of everything that exists.

Nothing came into existence except through the power of God's creative Spirit.

"God spoke and they were made". Life is found in the human person because "God breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and he became a living being".

As long as the Spirit is active in a person he or she lives. When God withdraws the Spirit, life comes to an end.

In the New Testament the Gospel of Luke reveals a particular interest in the Holy Spirit's role in the life of Jesus. Jesus is the creation of the Spirit, the unique bearer of the Spirit and the dispenser of the Spirit. Luke records the activity of the Spirit in Jesus' conception, birth and childhood. At his baptism the Spirit came down on him in the form of a dove and remained with him. In the power of the Spirit Jesus drove out demons, healed the sick and raised the dead to life. He prayed in the Spirit and was filled with joy in the Spirit. Because the Spirit was at work in Jesus his contemporaries could see that the Kingdom of God had come. In John's Gospel Jesus' last breath on the cross was seen as a breathing forth of the Spirit. On the day of his resurrection his Easter gift to his disciples was the Holy Spirit: He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit" bringing to mind the creation story. For Luke the empowering of the disciples with the Holy Spirit happened on Pentecost, fifty days after the resurrection. The same Spirit who hovered over the chaos to bring forth creation, hovered over the small group of believers and brought forth a new creation, the Church. Here Christ is continually present through the power of the Spirit. Endowed with that same power the mission of Jesus continues through us. Our task is to open our eyes and our hands to the whole of creation that groans and eagerly awaits transformation by the Spirit. We are invited to become co-creators with the Spirit by caring for our common home and all in it because it is created, nourished and cherished by the life-giving, creative Spirit of God. And so we pray:

"Come and sow life in the waste of our being / Pray in us, form us as one in the Son / Open our hearts to yourself mighty Spirit / Bear us to life in the Three who are One".

Sr. Anne

A thought for this Sunday for our Polish Parishioners

Thanks Chris

Technology can answer many of our questions and problems. But it will never answer all of them because it is a human creation. Only the Holy Spirit can answer all the questions. Only He can show us the way to get out of the most difficult situations. The Holy Spirit knows our hearts and knows what is the truth about this world. Some of us think it's impossible to live without technology anymore. But believe me, there is a life beyond technology, just look at the history and how mankind was doing back then. But is it possible to live without the Holy Spirit? Wouldn't it be the case that we are just present physically in this world and our souls are just dead? Come Holy Spirit!

Technologia może być odpowiedzią na wiele naszych pytań i problemów. Nigdy jednak nie odpowie na wszystkie z nich, ponieważ jest wytworem ludzkim. Tylko Duch Święty może nam dać odpowiedź na każde pytanie. Tylko On, może pokazać nam drogę, aby wyjść z najtrudniejszej sytuacji. Duch Święty zna nasze serca i wie jaka jest prawda o tym świecie. Niektórzy z nas myślą, że nie da się już żyć bez technologii. Uwierzcie mi, istnieje życie poza technologią, spójrzmy tylko na historię i jak ludzkość radziła sobie dawniej. Ale czy możliwe jest życie bez Ducha Świętego? Czy nie byłibyśmy obecni tylko ciałem w tym świecie, a nasze dusze nie byłyby martwe? Przyjdź Duchu Święty!

Men's Rites of Passage, Kiltegan, 18th - 22nd August 2021

Nowadays, the question of what it means to be a man can be perplexing, and to be a man of faith in Ireland today can be very difficult. Most men have a longing for the support and guidance of other men in their journey towards masculinity, maturity, and a deeper experience with the divine. Living a shallow unexamined life is an empty experience. Opening the door to this journey can start with the Men's Rites of Passage (MROP), a five-day deeply spiritual/ experience that builds on the classic patterns of male initiation through profound rituals and teachings. It is the kind of experience that can help awaken men to the adventure and mystery of their own masculinity, their potential for leadership, and their life's purpose. Join with other men on this journey in Kiltegan, Co Wicklow, 18-22 August 2021. For more information, go to malejourney.ie/rites/mrop-2019 or phone 087-176 3729

COVID-19 SUPPORT LINE FOR OLDER PEOPLE - ALONE manage a national support line and additional supports for older people who have concerns or are facing difficulties relating to COVID-19. Professional staff are available to answer queries and give advice and reassurance where necessary.

OVERCOMING DIFFICULTIES IN PRAYER - Pope Francis

Distraction is a common experience, not only in prayer but in all we do. "The human mind finds it difficult to dwell for long on a single thought; we all experience this constant whirlwind of images and illusions in perpetual motion, which accompany us even in our sleep." But if we give into this temptation, said the Pope, we are unable to do anything well. Aridity or "dryness" in prayer – when prayer seems to do no good, and inspires no joy or enthusiasm – is different from distraction in that it doesn't always arise from within us. Sometimes, said Pope Francis, God Himself allows us to experience this spiritual dryness, and at such times we must rely on "pure faith." In the face of this "succession of enthusiasm and discouragement" in prayer, Pope Francis called on Christians to persevere, to always keep walking. "All the saints have passed through this 'dark valley'," he said, and we should not be scandalised when we hear about their struggles with prayer, "the account of evenings of listless prayer, lived without taste". "At those times, the Pope continued, we must learn to remain constant in prayer". "Believers never stop praying!" he insisted.

We may not have moved mountains but volunteers have collected plenty of litter off our streets. We have highlighted many litter black spots and illegal dumping sites.

Other areas like ESB's sub station at Newlands Cross have been inaccessible to volunteers.

Through elected Cllrs representations; south Dublin county council follow ups and work by ESB cleaning crew this area is now clear. Team work. Thanks to all our volunteers Perhaps together we can move mountains! Clondalkin Tidy Towns

"Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous. The entire material universe speaks of God's love, His boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God."

(Pope Francis Laudato Si - Paragraph 84)

The Camac is high and fast at Riversdale Bridge after a deluge of rain last night. So the two male Mallard ducks hopped up on the bank and agreed to share a space. The mating season is over and the males are preparing for moulting in June. The Hawthorn will also morph into fruit. It is the 16th of May at 12.22pm. Enjoy the rest, lads. Rest, that wonderful natural healer and accommodator of growth, infuses all things. Turning around the May bushes, the river field opens up the adorable spectacle of new life, a gorgeous foal, soaking up the Sun with the daisies, Maybush and Mare in attendance.
