JONAH, JESUS AND LIFE'S STORMS

What do Jonah and Jesus have in common?

Both were prophets sent by God on a special mission. Coming from the same neighbourhood in Lower Galilee, Jesus, while growing up, would have heard about this famous 8th century BC neighbour. Jonah is the only prophet that Jesus compared himself to: “Just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so for three days and three nights the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth.” (Matt 12: 40 – 41) Jonah was commanded by God to go to Nineveh, the capital of Assyria in Mesopotamia, now Iraq. At that time Assyria was at the height of its power and was known for its oppression towards Israel. Nineveh is today part of Mosul and made news headlines some years ago when the tomb and shrine of the prophet Jonah was blown up by Sunni Jihadists.

Unlike Jesus, Jonah refused to go to Nineveh and preach God’s mercy. Abandoning his prophetic mission, he went in the opposite direction, boarding a ship to Tarshish, Spain. But God had other plans. Jonah’s sea crossing was disrupted by a mighty storm. The wind was so strong and the waves so high that the ship and crew were in danger. The fearful sailors cried out to their gods to save them while Jonah slept in the ship’s hold. Today’s Gospel describes Jesus’ crossing of the Sea of Galilee in a boat with his disciples. A sudden storm, high winds and threatening waves terrify the disciples while Jesus slept in the stern.

The sailors wake up Jonah: “Get up and call on your god so that we do not perish”. The disciples awaken Jesus: “Master, do you not care. We are going down”. Jesus ordered calm and all was calm again. But not so in Jonah’s case. Things got worse. When the sailors realised that Jonah’s disobedience to God caused the storm, Jonah asked to be thrown into the sea. With the restored calm the pagan sailors believed in Jonah’s God and Jonah did what God commanded. He went to Nineveh and the people of Nineveh listened to him and repented. Jesus’ disciples, filled with awe, wondered who Jesus really was: “Who can this be? Even wind and sea obey him”.

Stormy seasons in life are inevitable. Jesus warned us in John’s Gospel that troubles will come but He will be with us. Not all storms come to disrupt us. Some come to clear the path and help us to move on. The story of Jonah in the Book of Jonah and to-day’s Gospel reading are proof of this.

May They Rest in Peace

On June 7th, 1535, John Fisher was found guilty of treason on the grounds that he had said these words: 'The King, our Sovereign Lord, is not Supreme Head in earth of the Church of England,' On June 22nd of that same year he was beheaded on Tower Hill in London. Before he died he proclaimed to the crowd who had gathered to watch the execution: "Christian people, I am come hither to die for the Faith of Christ's Holy Catholic Church." While in prison awaiting trial John Fisher had been created a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Catholic Church. He was the first member of the College of Cardinals to suffer martyrdom. In 1935 he was canonized as a Saint in St Peter's Basilica in Rome. His Feast Day is kept on June 22nd together with that of his companion martyr, St Thomas More. More was a layman who had been Lord Chancellor of England. Thus the chief law officer of the Crown and the highest dignitary of ecclesiastical rank in England, died in defence of the principle that the Pope is the Supreme Head in earth of the Church of England.

FAMILIES WALKING TOGETHER IN HOPE - The 'Walking Together in Hope' initiative will be launched on 25 August 2021 at Saint Mary's Pro-Cathedral.

The Archdiocese of Dublin will provide some simple and achievable ideas for families and parishes starting in September 2021. We want to encourage families to take part in various initiatives to support faith lived in the home and celebrated together in our parishes. Our goal is to celebrate moments of hope and joy in family life, with resources suitable for learning, living and leading faith that are complementary to the way family is lived today. ### A thought for this Sunday for our Polish Parishioners

Thanks Chris

After the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, we should no longer look at the world and the people around us as before. We shouldn't "judge anyone by the standards of the flesh" as Paul says in his letter. However, we usually forget about it and we are like the disciples of today's gospel. Terrified that they might die in a storm at sea. "How is it that you have no faith?" Jesus asked them. When you look at this world, do you have faith that Jesus is in complete control of everything?

Po zmartwychwstaniu Pana Jezusa nie powinniśmy już patrzeć na ten świat i na otaczających nas ludzi tak jak wcześniej. Nie powinniśmy 'osądzać nikogo według ludzkiej oceny' jak mówi Paweł w swoim liście. Zazwyczaj jednak o tym zapominamy i jesteśmy jak uczniowie z dzisiejszej ewangelii. Przerażeni, że mogą zginąć podczas burzy na morzu. 'Wciąż jeszcze nie macie wiary?' - zapytał ich Pan Jezus. Czy kiedy patrzysz na ten świat, to masz wiarę, że Jezus całkowicie panuje nad wszystkim?

Your belief determines your action and your action determines your results, but first you have to believe.

Mark Victor Hansen

Why are you called The Dog Rose with such a gentle scent and such awesome delicate very endearing subtle colours and texture and expression?

In these heady days of June, when all our friends in Nature are in full bloom, you nail it.

Edelweiss says it best: " Bloom and grow forever. You look happy to meet me"

Your blossoms are floating on your curved branches, umbrella style, suggesting shelter under your flowers but reaching out in welcome to your buddies, the pollinators and us your guardians. As in all existence in The Cosmos,

You have your time and boy do you grab it with both hands, heads uplifted, all too fleeting.

Touching our deepest sensibilities,

You float to and fro in random breezes, diving and climbing in one sweep of notes, drawing us in with a gentle peaceful charm, reminiscent of that wonderful Italian Franciscan tenor, Friar Alessandro singing " Make me a Channel of Your Peace" -- on You Tube.

Maybe your shelter is given out by your galvanising presence. And, by the way, you are called The Dog Rose because of your canine-like thorns which aid you in climbing to the Sun. See "The Wild Dog Rose" by John Montague (1929--2016). This is special.

ST PATRICKS COLLEGE MAYNOOTH - NEW RESEARCH ON THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON FUNERALS

A Prayer for All Fathers on Father's Day

Heavenly Father,
you entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
support them in the work they have to do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love and salvation,
through Jesus Christ our rock and defender. Amen.

When upon life's billows you are tempest toss'd
When you are discouraged, thinking
all is lost

Count your many blessings, name them one by one
And it will surprise you what the Lord has done.
So, amid the conflict, whether great or small
Do not be discouraged, God is over all;
Count your many blessings, angels will attend,
Help and comfort give you to your journey's end.

The Revival of the Irish Mass Rocks

Following the Easter Octave this year, Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) Ireland launched a very special campaign inviting priests in each of the 26 dioceses of Ireland, to celebrate the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, at a Mass Rock located in their Diocese. The intention of each of these 26 Mass Rock Masses was for 'the renewal of the faith in Ireland through the intercession of the Irish Martyrs'. Priests in each of the 26 dioceses returned to these secluded and sacred places of historical worship where once countless Irish Martyrs and their companions risked their lives to receive and celebrate the Most Holy Eucharist.

Between 1534 -1714, millions of ordinary Irish men, women & children living in difficult times such as poverty, famine and enduring many horrific hardships as a result of anti-Catholic persecution, under the penal laws.

The settings for the Mass Rocks were wide and varied and yet all stunningly and uniquely beautiful; whether it be in a furry glen, on a bare rugged coastline, on a still, serene mountaintop, in a grassy green field covered in fresh dew or under a canopy of pine trees, with the soothing sounds of a gentle stream nearby... each Mass Rock had one thing in common i.e. it was found in a sacred wilderness and in a place of great serenity and closeness to God.

Monsignor Tommy Johnston reflects on his experience having celebrated 1 of the 26 Mass Rock Masses, organised by ACN Ireland, on Mass Hill, a very picturesque area in the Ox Mountains in the parish of Tubbercurry, the diocese of Achonry:

"The Mass Rock there is a huge boulder with an uneven surface offering no indication that it could possibly be used for such a sacred purpose, perhaps that is why it was chosen. It did not warrant a second glance. It was above suspicion. Its location nestled on the hillside provided a clear commanding view of the surrounding area, so, lookouts, at the first hints of danger could easily alert those gathered for Mass.

It was a unique privilege to stand at a place made sacred by our ancestors who had stood there all those years ago giving voice to their faith in presence and prayer conscious of the ever-present danger to life and livelihood."

ACN Ireland would like to express their most sincere and heartfelt gratitude to all the priests who participated in the Holy Sacrament of the Mass at one of the 26 Mass Rocks: the places where Eternal Life was offered for those who regularly risked their temporal life to receive JESUS.

ACN Ireland invite you to join them in praying for the renewal of the faith in Ireland through the intercession of the Irish Martyrs.

Please support & spread the good news of the ACN Ireland Mass Rock Campaign, informing souls of their greatest gift in the Eucharist which, only gives life, love, grace, protection & salvation.

WORLD REFUGEE DAY - Sunday 20th June 2021

Can you imagine what it would be like to have to leave your home, your community, your country and flee to another? Can you picture the challenges you would face and the sense of loss you would feel? Well, every minute 20 people undergo this harrowing experience and become refugees. Perhaps you are even a refugee yourself or know of displaced people living in your community. In a world where violence, persecution and war force thousands of people to flee each day, it's important that we all come together in support of refugees, and what better way than on World Refugee Day? This special occasion aims to raise awareness of and empathy for what displaced people go through, as well as celebrate refugees all over the world. In 1950 the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) was set up in Switzerland – it's the main organization responsible for supporting and safeguarding refugees to this day. Only those Palestinian refugees who fled the 1948 war with Israel are cared for by another body, the United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA). There are currently around 70 million displaced people across the globe, which equates to just under 1 in every 100 people. Sadly, over half of these are children, many of whom are alone and separated from their families. World Refugee Day was founded by the UN General Assembly on 4 December 2000 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees. The Convention established various rights for refugees, including the right to work, the right to education and the right to travel. 20 June was picked in order to coincide with the already established Africa Refugee Day, which was organized by the Organization of African Unity (OAU) and celebrated on this date prior to 2001. Each year has a different theme such as hope, perseverance, tolerance and respect, and the occasion is marked via a whole host of events in over 100 countries. The day aims to raise awareness of and take action in support of the plight of refugees, as well as honour their bravery and perseverance.

Migrants and refugees are not pawns on the chessboard of humanity. They are children, women and men who leave or who are forced to leave their homes for various reasons, who share a legitimate desire for knowing and having, but above all for being more

— Pope Francis —
