Parish Newsletter Sunday 5th September 2021

It's just a week since I arrived to take up my new appointment in Clondalkin Parish. It has been a busy week of meeting new people, trying to find my way around, unpacking boxes and getting the house set up, being introduced to the complexities of parish life in Clondalkin and some of the issues that will require my attention in due course.

By way of introduction I might begin by saying that I was born in Dublin and grew up in Dundrum. After my Leaving Certificate I studied for the priesthood in Holy Cross College Clonliffe, in UCD and in St. Patrick's College Maynooth. I was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Dublin in 1987. Since then I have had appointments to Cabra West, Ballymun Road, Skerries, Rush, Castleknock and now here in Clondalkin. My life in recent weeks has been one of upheaval. Change is not always easy. It is something many people avoid and only confront when absolutely necessary. Change is part and parcel of the life of a diocesan priest. From time to time the Bishop will invite a priest to move and take up a new appointment. It is a challenging time and also one of some trepidation for the priest.

For a priest, change means leaving what one is familiar with behind. It means packing up and moving to pastures new, opening oneself to new experiences, forming new relationships, gaining new insights and ministering to new people in a new place. It can be difficult to move from where one is settled and comfortable. There can be uncertainty, a little anxiousness, and a concern as to whether one will be able to minister effectively in a different setting.

Despite all the elements of change, the work of a priest remains essentially the same no matter where he is appointed. It entails preaching the Gospel, celebrating the Eucharist, being there with people at significant moments as they experience both the happy and sad events of life, and helping people to recognise the presence and action of God in their lives.

I begin my ministry in Clondalkin parish in a spirit of trust and hope. I trust that the Lord will be with me and provide me with the graces I will need to meet the challenges that lie ahead. I hope that my ministry will be effective in that it will bring the presence of Jesus in all kinds of ways to touch people's lives. I ask you to remember me in your prayers.

Together, let us work to support the Catholic faith community here in Clondalkin. Let us continue to witness to the faith that has been lived and handed on in this parish over very many years. Let us ensure that we leave a legacy of Christian example for those who will come after us. May the Lord bless and be with us in our endeavours. May Mary, Mother of the Church, watch over us all and intercede for us with Jesus, her son and our Saviour.

Corona Virus Prayer

We pray for all those in our country and throughout the world suffering from the Corona Virus. May its victims and their families be strengthened by the support of our community of faith and restored soon to full health. We also pray for our leaders and medical personnel who deal with the virus. May we keep calm and may we join together in solidarity with care and compassion to tackle this emergency.

This we ask in confidence through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

New date!
52nd INTERNATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS
BUDAPEST | 2021
5-12 September

www.facebook.com/iec2021budapest/

The International Eucharistic Congress is a gathering of people every four years, somewhere in the world, which aims to promote an awareness of the central place of the Eucharist in the life and mission of the Catholic Church; to help improve our understanding and celebration of the liturgy and to draw attention to the social dimension of the Eucharist. These aims are achieved through a programme of pastoral preparation in the lead up to the Congress and a programme of liturgical and cultural events, lectures and workshops throughout Congress week.

Hungary last hosted the International Eucharistic Congress in 1938. The theme of IEC2021 is 'All My Springs are in You'. It is taken from Psalm 87 and refers to God as the source (or spring) of life for his people.

In 2012 the 50th International Eucharistic Congress took place in Dublin on the theme, 'The Eucharist: Communion with Christ and with One Another'. Ireland hosted the 31st Congress in 1932 which coincided with the 1500th anniversary of Saint Patrick's arrival in Ireland.

PRAYER FOR THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS 2021

Heavenly Father, source of all life!

Send us your Holy Spirit that we may recognize and grow in the love of Christ present in the Eucharist, who handed himself over for us! He is our Lord and our Master, our friend and our food, our healer and our peace. Give us the courage to take his strength and his joy to every person! Grant us, that the time of the preparation and the celebration of the Eucharistic Congress would serve the spiritual renewal of our community, cities, nation, Europe and the world! Amen.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

Lord our God, you said that "the harvest is rich but the labourers are few". Pray, therefore, the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into his fields."

Lord, we pray for your Spirit to send us holy priests, to ignite the spark inside men to faithfully minister as priests in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

Fill them with zeal to come forward with a heart on fire with divine love, so they may become mirrors of Christ, your Son, in a world in need of His light, meaning, hope and courage.

Send to the Archdiocese of Dublin, strong and courageous spiritual shepherds, fearless in proclaiming the Resurrection of Christ anew for our time. May these men of prayer be always open to the responsible call of service to your beloved people. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Thursday 9th September

St. Ciaran, Abbot (Clonmacnoise)

Friday 10th September

St. Peter Claver, Priest

St Ciaran of Clonmacnoise, Abbot (6th Century)

Memorial - 9th September

St. Ciarán was born around 512. His father was a travelling carpenter called Beoit and his mother was called Darerca. Ciarán was born and reared in an area that is in the present-day Roscommon. He had a number of brothers and sisters. Some of them also entered the religious life. As a young boy, Ciarán helped his family herd cattle and studied his lessons while out in the fields. When he was older, he went to study with St. Finian at Clonard, which is in modern-day Meath. He later studied on Aran with St. Enda, and later with Senan of Scatterry Island where he was ordained a priest. After spending time in various monasteries, Ciarán eventually founded his monastery at Clonmacnoise in January of 544. Clonmacnoise later became one of the most influential monasteries in Europe. Alcuin of York (735-804), the most renowned of Saxon scholars who became an advisor at the court of Charlemagne, studied here under Colcu the Wise in the eighth century. He wrote letters to him and sent presents from himself and the emperor. The monastery survived the Viking raids and the Norman wars up until 1552.

VACANCIES

DUBLIN BASED GOSPEL CHOIR – VACANCY FOR MUSICAL DIRECTOR

A new Gospel Choir based in Dublin 5 is currently seeking applications for an energetic and dynamic musical director who can help bring a new vision to life. The current core group of startup members are experienced and enthusiastic gospel choir singers with an extensive back catalogue and they intend to group the choir with the assistance of an MD.

The successful candidate will have the opportunity to develop and creatively nurture a musical identity for this new choir with the assistance of a dedicated committee committed to supporting the MD and growing the choir. Remuneration will reflect the experience and qualifications of the successful applicant in accordance with the guidelines published by the Advisory Committee on Church Music. Interested applicants, please apply to: faithgospelchoirdublin@gmail.com

We are looking for volunteers to help us with our Newsletter, website and social media pages

Over the last year we have seen how important maintaining communications and connections are. Can you give a bit of your time? Can you help update, add content, help shape our Ministry of Communication for our parish?

A thought for this Sunday for our Polish Parishioners Thanks Chris

God's will is to come into your life with Love and Power. And it doesn't matter what you look like, what you do right now or what happened in your past. He wants to come into your life to heal your soul. What do you need to do to make it happen? You need to awaken a desire in your heart. The deaf man in today's Gospel could not pray to God with his mouth, he could not call Jesus and beg Him for help. But the desire and longing for God in his heart were enough for Jesus to hear him. Do not be afraid, open your heart, your God is coming to save you.

Bożą wolą jest przyjść do Twojego życia z Miłością i Mocą.

I nie ma znaczenia, jak wyglądasz, co robisz w obecnej chwili lub co wydarzyło się w Twojej przeszłości. On chce przyjść do Twojego życia, aby uzdrowić Twoją duszę. Co potrzebujesz zrobić by to się wydarzyło? Musisz tylko tego zapragnąć w swoim sercu. Głuchoniemy człowiek z dzisiejszej Ewangelii nie mógł modlić się do Boga ustami, nie mógł zawołać Jezusa i błagać Go o pomoc. Ale pragnienie i tęsknota za Bogiem w jego sercu wystarczyły, by Jezus go usłyszał. Nie bój się, otwórz swoje serce, twój Bóg przychodzi, aby cię uratować.

Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing.

A Huge welcome back to all parents, teachers and especially pupils as our schools start back.
Thanks for all you have done and are doing!! You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

A TEACHER'S PRAYER FOR THEIR STUDENTS AS THEY START A NEW YEAR!

LORD

Let me be just what they need.

If they need someone to trust, let me be trustworthy.
If they need sympathy, let me sympathize.
If they need time, let me make that time for them.
If they need love, (and they do need love)
let me love in full measure.

Let me not anger easily, Lord, but let me be tempered in your mercy.

When I stand before them, Lord, let me look strong and good and honest and loving. And let me be as strong and good and honest as I look to them.

Help me to counsel the anxious, crack the covering of the shy and temper the rowdy with a gentle attitude.

Permit me to teach only the truth. Help me to inspire them so that learning will not cease at the classroom door.

Let the lessons they learn make their lives fruitful and happy. And, Lord, let me bring them to know you. Teach them through me to know and love you.

Finally, may I be open to learn the lessons they teach. AMEN

A Prayer for our children as they start back to School, college or University!

DEAR GOD,
THANK YOU FOR THE GIFT OF EDUCATION IN EVERY FORM.
AS OUR CHILDREN PREPARE TO START A NEW YEAR
MAY CONFIDENCE BE THEIR FOUNDATION, MAY GRACE BE THEIR GUIDE AND
MAY HOPE BE THEIR COMPASS TOWARD A BRIGHT FUTURE.
I PRAY THEY WOULD HAVE EYES TO SEE
THE NEEDS OF THOSE AROUND THEM
AND A HEART TO LOVE WELL.
MAY THEY FACE EACH DAY WITH POSITIVITY
KNOWING THAT NO MATTER
WHAT COMES THEIR WAY,
THEY DO NOT HAVE TO FACE IT ALONE.
AMEN

Join us to light a candle on World Suicide Prevention Day

Friday 10th September at 8pm

Too many people die each year through suicide. Let's create hope through Action
Suicide is Preventable.

On Friday 10th Sept at 8pm join us to light a candle and take 1 minute's silence

- To show your support for suicide prevention
- To remember a lost loved one and the survivors of suicide.

As you light the candle take a moment to say -

"I light this candle and suddenly the world around me changes. I am reminded yet again that one small flame is all it takes to let the darkness know that it cannot win."

During the week also encourage you to tie a ribbon on your nearest Tree of Hope & send us names of those you would like to remember and they will be remembered at the 12 noon Mass, Sunday 12th in Clondalkin Village Parish

Local Authorities Leading on Climate Action

The event programme and online registration have launched for Dublin's first Climate Action Week (DCAW21), taking place from Monday 13th to Sunday 19th September 2021. A range of online and in-person climate action events are now open for registration at www.dublinclimateactionweek.ie

The broad range of events address the theme areas of Energy & Buildings, Transport, Flood Resilience, Nature Based Solutions, Resource Management and Citizen Engagement.

Read Archbishop Dermot Farrell new pastoral letter on the climate crisis

"This pastoral letter, which I have titled, The Cry of the Earth, the Cry of the Poor, approaches the climate catastrophe from the perspective of faith. That is not to say, it excludes the insights and contribution of the natural sciences. On the contrary, healthy faith takes on board what God says through creation (see Dei Verbum §3). Faith and science are not opponents; in a truly Christian view, faith and reason - fides et ratio - go hand in hand. God reveals himself through the world. That is the heart of our Catholic faith. Scientists have issued a "code red" not just for the environment, but for humanity itself. God now calls us, individually and collectively, to work for the good of the planet and the good of all. Let us not fool ourselves: there can be no enduring response to the cry of the earth without responding to the need for justice and dignity."

On the 1st September we began the Season of Creation. The theme for the Season of Creation 2021 is 'Restoring Our Common Home'. During this season we are asked to join together to celebrate creation and protect our common home through prayer, reflection and action. #climatechange #SeasonOfCreation We ask you to join in saying our Prayer for the Earth each day during this time - thanks

A Clondalkin prayer for the Earth

God of the Universe,
We thank You for Your many great gifts we see each around us day.
For the beauty of Corkagh and Collinstown parks and the lazy, meandering Carmac river. We thank you for the wildlife, creatures, trees and plants that they support and for the rest they provide.
We thank you for clean water and fresh air, for food and shelter, animals and plants. Thank you for the beautiful diversity that is so evident in our town, village and estates and for the blessing of each other.
Let us never take these precious gifts for granted.

May we always be mindful of what we use. Forgive us for times we have wasted what You have given us, and we pray for those who suffer because of our waste, greed or indifference.

Let apathy never allow us to forget our role as stewards and caretakers of nature and may our touch be always marked with gentleness, care and with love, respecting all living things.
We ask this in Your name, today & always.
Amen
