From Building Hope to Synod and back to Building Hope....

Last summer the Dublin Diocese asked for your input about planning and shaping the future of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin. More than three thousand people responded to the Building Hope questionnaire. The report was published in September last year.

Fast forward a few months; the Synod on Synodality took place all over the world including parishes in Ireland. Again, you were asked to share your hopes, sorrows and joys about your experience of Church.

The parish of Clondalkin submitted those experiences to the Dublin Diocese Synod Committee and they published their report last week. About three quarters of all the parishes in the Archdiocese engaged with those listening sessions among them were so-called focus groups (prison chaplains, prisoners, teenagers, members of the LGBTQ+ community and many others). However, any report is only as good as the actions that follow. What do I mean by that?

The Diocesan Synod report is sent to Maynooth where the Irish Bishops will write a national response to Rome. Later this year a Synod will take place in Rome to discuss, to reflect and hopefully to respond to those reports. You could say: We have done our bit; it is over to the Holy Spirit now. The Building Hope report however is different.

It is the road map for the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin to move forward. As we all know, the Church like we knew it, is long gone. The Building Hope report was rather bleak when it comes to priests in the Archdiocese: Masses "Of the 312 priests who currently hold parish appointments in the Archdiocese, 139 are over 70 years of age. 116 of the 312 are on loan to the Archdiocese. We currently have just two students in formation for priesthood for the Archdiocese."

It doesn't come as a surprise and it is nothing new that words like Co-Responsibility, active participating together as baptised People of God are being used to describe the way to move forward.

THE BUILDING HOPE PRAYER

Pilgrim God, we give you thanks and praise. You constantly journey with us even in our darkness and doubts. We seek your way of loving kindness to walk together as one family. Open our eyes to recognize you In the faces of one another, In the breaking of bread and in the splendour of creation. May the risen Christ sow seeds of hope and new life deep within us. May our hearts and minds be filled with your Word, bringing forth truth, justice and peace. May the Holy Spirit working in and through us do much more than we can dare to imagine as we live out our baptismal calling in humble and loving service. We make this our prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us. St. Laurence O'Toole, pray for us. St. Kevin, pray for us.

St. Brigid, pray for us.

Feast Days This Week

Monday 13th JuneSt. Anthony of Padua, Priestand Doctor of the ChurchTuesday 14th JuneSt. Davnet, Virgin

Saturday 18th June

The Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday

Prayer to St. Anthony of Padua St. Anthony, faithful servant of Christ, you offered comfort and consolation to all who came to you in times of trouble. Pray for me now, that I may know true peace of mind, heart and soul. Help me grow in faith, so that I may be free from all useless and needless anxiety in this life. Fill me with a complete and lasting confidence in God's healing graces. Grant me the serenity known by those who let go of resentments, bitterness and anger. Reassure me that Our Divine Saviour, Jesus Christ, is with me every step of the way, every day of my life, and that in His gracious love I need not worry or fear any of life's difficulties. Amen.

A thought for this Sunday for our Polish Parishioners

Thanks Chris

How can one God be present in three persons? Are we able to grasp the mystery of the Holy Trinity with our simple human mind? God gives us his Holy Spirit to lead us to the fullness of the truth. That he would reveal to us the secrets of the Kingdom and faith. Let us not be afraid to ask Him! His answers won't always be expressed through human words because sometimes it is impossible. Sometimes He will speak to us in the language of our hearts - through love! And let Him do it! This will allow us to understand at least some part of the mysteries of our faith.

W jaki sposób jeden Bóg może być obecny w trzech osobach? Czy jesteśmy w stanie pojąć tajemnicę Trójcy Przenajświętszej naszym prostym ludzkim umysłem? Bóg daje nam swojego Ducha Świętego, aby prowadził nas do pełni prawdy. By odkrywał przed nami tajemnice Królestwa i wiary. Nie lękajmy się Go pytać! Nie zawsze Jego odpowiedzi będą wyrażone ludzkimi słowami bo czasami jest to niemożliwe. Czasami będzie mówił do nas językiem naszych serc - miłością! I pozwólmy Mu na to! To pozwoli nam choć trochę pojąć tajemnice naszej wiary.

From Building Hope to Synod and back to Building Hope....

We all share responsibility about building a vibrant and active community and with that, I am back to you (again):

Can you take a few minutes and help the Parish Pastoral Council by answering these four questions

- Q. 1: What are we doing well as a parish?
- Q. 2: What could we develop?
- Q. 3: What will our parish look like in 5 or 10 years' time?
- Q. 4: With which 3 or 4 or 5 parishes would it make good sense for your parish to be in local parish partnership?

Here are 10 interesting facts about the parish of Clondalkin (this includes Knockmitten/Clonburris):

- 1. We have a population of about 15,000 people (2016)
- 2. 10,500 identify as Catholic (2016)
- 3. In 2019 about 1300 people were "Mass-goers"
- 4. In 2019 about 280 children celebrated their Confirmation
- 5. In 2019 we celebrated 188 Baptisms and 97 Funerals
- 7. Mass attendance is down over 15% since 2014
- 8. Between 2017 and 2021 our income has dropped by over 50%
- 9. We have many young families, young people and children in the parish
- 10. Your Parish needs your help your time, your talent, your ideas, your participation and most of all, your presence.

As you know from experience, Priests, Deacons and Parish Pastoral Workers come and go; what stays is you! Please have your say – write your answers to those four questions and email them to christina.malone@dublindiocese.ie and/or fill out the forms available at the back of the Church and return those before the before the 19th of June by dropping them into the box below the Sacred Heart Statue in Clondalkin Village.

Look at the canopy of growth of flowers (both wild and nursery) around the pine tree opposite the Sacristy door in The Village Church. Nectar and shelter for our vital insects. These little guys first appeared 400 million years ago and survived the dinosaur wipe out. For 150 million years, only insects had the power of flight.
