The Coming of the Lord

This Sunday we begin a new liturgical year. We enter the season of Advent, a short season of a few weeks that prepares us for the great feast of Christmas when we will celebrate the love of God made visible to us with the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem.

Advent is a time of waiting and anticipation. We count down the days to Christmas and we look forward to the celebrations that lie ahead. In the Church you will see an Advent wreath. The wreath, which is circular in shape and made of evergreen leaves, reminds us of the everlasting love of God for us. The four candles on the wreath mark the passing of the Advent days. We will light a candle on each of the Sundays of Advent until finally we will light the white candle in the centre of the wreath at our Christmas Masses to mark the birth of Jesus, the light of the world.

Advent is also a time of preparation. There are lots of things to be done if we are to be ready to celebrate Christmas as we would wish to. Over the coming weeks, people will be writing cards, putting up Christmas trees and decorations, buying presents, getting ready to welcome visitors for the Christmas and many other things besides. Amidst all the hustle and bustle we need to remember that Christmas is about Jesus Christ. We need to prepare ourselves to welcome Jesus as we celebrate his coming among us at Christmas.

While Christmas celebrates a historical event of 2000 years ago, we also look forward in hope during this Advent season to the coming of Christ again at the end of time, while all the time being conscious of the presence of Christ with us now, today, especially when we encounter him in prayer and receive him in Holy Communion.

I hope that you will be able to make a little time each day during Advent to reflect on God's love for you. Prepare to welcome Jesus at Christmas by consciously doing one thing each day of Advent to show your love for God and neighbour. It need only be a small thing, a few moments of prayer or an act of kindness towards someone. It will help keep you focused on the real meaning of Christmas and ensure that Jesus finds a welcome in your heart and home as we celebrate Christmas in a few week's time.

THE BUILDING HOPE PRAYER

Pilgrim God, we give you thanks and praise.

You constantly journey with us
even in our darkness and doubts.

We seek your way of loving kindness to walk together as one family.

Open our eyes to recognize you

In the faces of one another,

In the breaking of bread and in the splendour of creation.

May the risen Christ sow seeds of hope and new life deep within us.

May our hearts and minds be filled with your Word,
bringing forth truth, justice and peace.

May the Holy Spirit working in and through us do much more than we can dare to imagine as we live out our baptismal calling in humble and loving service.

We make this our prayer through Christ Our Lord.

Amen

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

St. Laurence O'Toole, pray for us.

St. Kevin, pray for us.

St. Brigid, pray for us.

Parish Pilgrimage to Lourdes

Due to Covid difficulties it has not been possible to have our Parish pilgrimage to Lourdes since 2020. However, through discussion with a number of people who previously travelled, we now feel we should look at the possibility of going in 2023. We would like to hear from those who might consider going before we talk to the travel company. Please let us know your thoughts if you feel you would like to come. We have normally gone in May, taking into account other events in the Parish (First Holy Communion and Confirmation).

Prayer for Missionaries

St. Therese of the Child Jesus, Patroness of the Missions, remember your burning desire while on earth 'to plant the cross of Jesus in every land and to announce the Gospel till the end of the time'. We ask you now to help missionaries everywhere and inspire them with your love. Obtain for us an increase of missionary zeal and generosity. Protect all who preach the Gospel, support them in their trials and teach them to love Jesus as you loved him.

Amen.

LECTIO DIVINA

Table Prayer

What do you do with all the Memorial Cards?

Here's an idea. When you gather to eat, using the example in the picture, place one of the cards in a glass and light a candle in front of it.

You could use this prayer or one from the particular card.

God of hope.

May your eternal light and peace shine on our friends today. We remember them with us at this table.

May they enjoy the banquet of love prepared for them. Amen.

Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing.

What is that at 6am on Sunday morning in Donegal Town Square (The Diamond)? A worker with a head torch picking up the rubbish around the Square. Oh!! There's the sweeper truck and, my word, the view from the fourth floor of the Abbey Hotel is Fairyland Central. Cars coming down the hill with heavily frosted roofs (like Christmas sledges). The Christmas lights will be up in the next week or so. Throw in a bit of snow and carols in The Diamond. I'm on it ... the 9am Sligo train, the 64 Bus Eireann drops you at the door of The Abbey Hotel (great buzz here). Wait till you see the church on the hill, built with pinky brown granite from Barnsmore gap nearby. And then, the people, just awesomely welcoming. No wonder, they called The Square, the Diamond - - all life here sparkles. Magic !

Pope: Jews and Christians can pave the way for peace

Welcoming 200 members of the Executive Committee of the World Jewish Congress (WJC) lead by its President Ronald S. Lauder, on Tuesday (22/11/22), Pope Francis said the common religious heritage of Jews and Christians should be seen as an “incentive to act together” for a more fraternal and peaceful world. In his address the Pope recalled that from the Second Vatican Council, the organization has been in dialogue with the Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews, and noted that their visit “testifies to and strengthens the bonds of friendship” between the Holy See and the Jewish communities. He noted that Jews and Christians, not only profess faith in the one Maker of heaven and earth, who created every human being in His own image and likeness, and has revealed Himself to humanity, but also “share a similar outlook on the final things, shaped by trust that on the journey of life we are not advancing towards nothingness, but towards an encounter with the Most High who cares for us”. “While there may be different conceptions in Judaism and Christianity about how this fulfilment will come about, the consoling promise that we share remains”, he said. He referred again, in particular, to the “great sacrilegious war” waging on in Ukraine, which, he noted, “threatens Jews and Christians alike, depriving them of their loved ones, their homes, their property and their very lives!” Concluding Pope Francis thanked the delegation for the visit, expressing the wish that the Most High may lead Jews and Christians together in the way of peace.
